DCID No. 1/19

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 1/19

NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENTS FOR INTELLIGENCE
SOURCES OR METHODS INFORMATION

(Effective _____)

Pursuant to Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, Executive Order 11905, and National Security Council Intelligence Directives, and in order to improve the protection of sources and methods of intelligence, the following policy and procedures are hereby established.

1. Policy: All members of the Executive Branch and its contractors given access to information containing sources or methods of intelligence shall, as a condition of obtaining access, sign an agreement that they will not disclose that information to persons not authorized to receive it.

2. Responsibilities: Heads of Executive departments and agencies and senior officials of the Intelligence Community are responsible for implementing within their organizational purview programs to ensure that members of their organizations and their contractors given access to information containing sources or methods of intelligence shall, as a condition of obtaining access, sign an agreement that they will not disclose such information to persons not authorized to receive it. Agreements executed in response to this requirement will be designed in accordance with the guidance below. Senior officials of the Intelligence Community will also ensure that materials involving information containing sources or methods of intelligence which are created within their organizational purviews are appropriately labeled in accordance with the marking instructions outlined below.

3. Labeling Requirement: All materials involving information containing sources or methods of intelligence and requiring protection from unauthorized disclosures will be marked "WARNING NOTICE - SENSITIVE INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED." This label will be prominently displayed on all such material and information, so that the recipient of such information and material can easily recognize it as containing sources or methods of intelligence. As permitted by Director of Central Intelligence Directive No. 1/7, "Control of Dissemination of Foreign Intelligence," dated 18 May 1976, for special purposes this marking may be abbreviated WNINTEL; in addition to the uses specified in DCID No. 1/7 the abbreviation is permitted to allow paragraph marking to facilitate extracting. Special care should be exercised to ensure against abbreviation, if the materials are disseminated to Executive departments and agencies, or components thereof, not intimately familiar with the meaning of the abbreviation.

4. Nondisclosure Agreements: Nondisclosure agreements executed in satisfaction of the requirements of this Directive may concurrently be designed to meet other individual agency needs; however, the agreements will explicitly contain and otherwise be consistent with the following:

a. An acknowledgement statement concerning the need to protect intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure pursuant to the National Security Act of 1947, as amended.

b. A notation that the agreement is being executed with reference to the requirement of Section 7(a) of Executive Order 11905.

c. A consideration clause that the agreement is being executed by the individual as a condition of being granted (continuing) access to information containing sources or methods of intelligence.

d. An acknowledgement that the individual recognizes that the tenure of the agreement is indefinite, i.e., it remains binding beyond the tenure of his access or employment.

e. The statement that the individual will not disclose to persons not authorized to receive it information containing sources or methods of intelligence.

f. A recognition statement that the individual has been advised that materials involving information containing sources or methods of intelligence bear the marking "WARNING NOTICE - SENSITIVE INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED" which means that such material or information falls within the purview of the agreement.
